Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-26, drawn to a method for identifying a modulator of a G protein-coupled receptor comprising an endogenous human ARE-2 polypeptide, classified in class 435, subclasses, 4 and 6.
 - II. Claim 27, drawn to a method of modulating the functionality of a G protein-coupled receptor comprising an endogenous human ARE-2 polypeptide, classified in class 435, subclass 4.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other for the following reasons. Inventions I-II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP §806.04, MPEP §808.01). In the instant case, the different inventions are drawn to entirely different methods: Invention I requires identifying a modulator of a G protein-coupled receptor comprising an endogenous human ARE-2 polypeptide, whereas Invention II requires modulating the functionality of a G protein-coupled receptor comprising an endogenous human ARE-2 polypeptide. The methods of two inventions have different procedures, use different compositions, and have different biological outcomes. Each method is unique and not required another. Thus, the methods are exclusive.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1646

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for a single group is not required for any other group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
5. Furthermore, the application contains claims which are directed to variants of a G protein-coupled receptor comprising an endogenous human ARE-2 polypeptide, including the polypeptide of SEQ ID NIO: 20. Each polypeptide represents a structural and functionally distinct entity that is capable of supporting a separate patent. The search and consideration of more than a single sequence constitutes an undue search burden on the office, given the ever-increasing size of the database.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of a single polypeptide that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election. The Examiner notes that this is not a species election requirement; rather it sets forth additional invention groups.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48 (b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48 (b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17 (l).
